DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. § 121:
 - I. Claims 1-34, drawn to a Brassica napus plant cell, tissue culture or plant which is Early Napus and resistant to at least one AHAS-inhibitor herbicide and methods of breeding using said plant, classified in class 435, subclass 418, for example.
 - II. Claims 35-41, drawn to a method for preparing oil and/or meal from seed of a Brassica plant, classified in class 426, subclass 489, for example.
 - III. Claims 42-49, drawn to vegetable oil comprising all or part of a plant cell of a Brassica plant, classified in class 426, subclass 601, for example.
 - IV. Claims 50-56, drawn to meal produced using a seed of a Brassica plant, classified in class 426, subclass 615, for example.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

1. Inventions I and II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the Brassica plant part, the seed, of Group I can be used to practice a materially different process than the method of preparing oil and/or meal of Group II, such as the method of breeding a Brassica line encompassed by Group I.

2. Inventions I and III are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the Brassica plant, plant cell or plant part of Group I can be used for plant breeding. The subcombination has separate utility such as cooking oil.

3. Inventions I and IV are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the Brassica plant, plant cell or plant part of Group I can be used for plant breeding. The subcombination has separate utility such as an animal feed.

4. Inventions II and III are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the vegetable oil of Group III can be made using a materially different process than that of Group II, such as blending oils from different Brassica plants.

5. Inventions II and IV are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the meal of Group IV can be made using a materially different process than that of Group II, such as a process wherein the oil is not separated.

6. Inventions III and IV are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions are unrelated because the vegetable oil of Group III and the meal of Group IV are compositionally distinct.

7. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, recognized divergent subject matter, and because the search required for one of the groups is not required for another, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

8. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete within one month (not less than 30 days) must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR § 1.143).

Art Unit: 1638

9. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR §1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR § 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR § 1.17(i).
